POLITICS.

A sad story comes to us from the city of Atlanta. An industrious, sober, successful business man of the place heard the buzzing of the political bee and bit. He must be the mayor of his city, but as he hadly thought, to win that honor he must know the "boys," the keepers of saloons, he must "set 'em up," he must drink himself "just to be half-fellow-well-met" with all. And these things he did. His election followed and he took the oath of office. But the habit had been formed, and the sober business man became the drunken mayor. He reeled on the streets, and made a fool of himself while on duty. This outraged his constituents, be it said to their praise, and he was asked to resign. Mortified and deeply penitent he confessed his sin, took the pledge of total abstinence and was allowed to remain in office. Better never to have listened to the buzz, or listening to have heeded it. A sober business man is as superior to a drunken politician as a living is to a dead dog.

Was it necessary to win that he should have become drunken? By no means. Sober statesmen are best statesmen. Gladstone did not find it necessary to "treat" or be "treated." Bar-room reputes is not worth having. Enthusiasm born of the wine glass is ephemeral. It is sad to find that the path of the politician is beset with temptations, especially the temptation to stimulate, and friends of the thoughtful kind do tremble for the young man who begins to tread it, and yet the politics of the land must not be given over to the bad men of the land. Our lawless work of those we are accustomed to speak of politicians, and they must be sober men or we will have sorry laws. Yes, let good men take active part in politics and good and sober men fill our offices, make and execute our laws. Banish whiskey from the fight, and don't imagine it to be necessary to stimulate to make a speech or to be a statesman. Don't expect the candidate to treat you, and don't you offer to treat him.

Ex-Speaker Reed has at last resigned and the "agonies" are over.

Major Russell B. Harrison, son of Ex-President Harrison, is dangerously ill at Santiago, of yellow fever.

The New York Herald no longer publishes an European edition. May be Astor killed the foreign enterprise.

South Carolina has gone largely into the cultivation of tobacco and wheat. They do it because it beats 5 cent cotton.

It is said that every person in this country is $4.10 richer this year than he was last. How is your pocket change, neighbor?

Gen. Fitzhugh Lee is coming to the front again as probable Governor General of Cuba. Mr. McKinley could do no better than to appoint him at once.

"Drat the lawyers," said Horace Greely, "they have no idea of the value of time." He had just been bored by a long speech from one of the craft.

Governor Tyler has recommended Virginia's quota of officers for the new regiments. If any of the old boys are anxious to go with them the way is clear.

Mr. Rouss sends so many checks to Winchester that the citizens must have no need to pay taxes. What a friend the blind old ex-Confederate is to our sister town.

Senator Harris is right. Make the presidential term six years and no second term. And the inaugural on the 3rd Wednesday in May instead of the 4th of March.

If the Democrats continue to waste strength fighting each other between this and the national campaign of 1900, they will be in poor trim for fighting Republicans then.

Booker Washington has been denounced by his own people as "traitor" and "trimmer," and this, too, in cultured Boston. He is simply too decent for his defamers, white and black.

A Kentucky schoolmaster who had drunk half a gallon of whiskey a day for forty years has just died at the age of 100. But that was in Kentucky—where the corn is full of kernels and the colonels full of corn.—Evening Leader.

The Baltimore Sun says Mr. Bryan "should explain." To Mr. McKinley, to Boss Hanna and the Baltimore Sun, Maryland's only formidable Republican sheet, and to others of that ilk? He hasn't time to waste on such incorrigibles. Let him rally the Democrats and he can whip the "world, the flesh and the devil." McKinley the world, Hanna the flesh, and the devil.

Philadelphia has waked up to the fact that the adulteration of food is carried to an alarming extent, and the grand jury has taken the matter in hand. There is no more important subject to be considered. We must eat to live and ought to be protected against "poison" and the embalmer.

Bryan says the "Chicago platform" was written for all time, and then adds that new issues come with the coming years, and they too must be met. This has been seized upon by some anxious folks as an abandonment of the Chicago platform. We fail to see it.

According to figures given out by a close friend of Senator Martin, his return to the Senate is assured by a large majority. To the every day reader of the newspaper this is evidently true. Gov. Tyler is still counting chickens but the eggs haven't been placed under the old hen or in the incubator.

Ex-Secretary Alger says he is out of politics. His less than two years of office him, we imagine, a million or less. He has been buying Southern delegates to national conventions right along for two decades and more. Millionaires who dodge taxes face squarely the demands of political dead beats.

Dr. Talmage's text last Sunday was appropriate to the season: "A pool which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda, having five porches. In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water." How his imagination winged his way from seaside to mountain resort, as he painted in bright colors the scenes enacted there. Not all "withered" but most all wicked.

It is gratifying to know that a reading chart which was prepared by a Virginia woman, now a teacher in one of Roanoke's schools, has been adopted for use in the public schools of Porto Rico. In this connection we mention that as many as 70 school books have been prepared by Southern authors of late and been printed by a Richmond concern. This gives promise of a better day in Dixie.

Hobson City is an Alabama town composed entirely of negroes. Not a white person residing there. The population numbers 400. There are 100 houses, three churches, a school house, several stores and no school. They insist that they will govern themselves wisely and well, and the experiment will be watched with interest. The no-school feature speaks well for them, and if the "speak easies" and "blind tigers," are kept out too, we have high hopes of the peace and prosperity of the town. Whiskey sold in the dark is as hurtful as whiskey sold in the light.

One Mr. Purves, treasurer of the Hampton Institute, flatters himself that he has found the solution of the negro problem, and suggests "co-operative farming" as that solution. His idea is that the negro will become so busy with his farm as to have no time for politics. Wanamaker ought to have enough behind his "bargain counter" to absorb his thought and energies, and yet it seems impossible that he should keep his finger out of the political pie. And really just now the negro has but little to do with politics anyhow. The treasurer is no doubt sincere but he must try again.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, August 21, 1899.

Vice-Chairman, William I. Stone, of the Democratic National Committee, emphatically repudiates the reports sent out from Washington, that he was about to abandon the Bryan bark and take up Rear-Admiral Schley as a candidate for the Democratic Presidential nomination. Mr. Stone also said: "I am far from Bryan for President. I always have been for him, and expect to remain so. I think there is not a shadow of doubt about his nomination by the next Democratic National Convention. I have never heard Schley's name mentioned as a possible candidate for President except in newspaper gossip. I never thought this was serious and do not think the last report is any more serious than the others. I have never thought of Schley as anything but a brave naval officer. This talk about my being for him is rot. I am for Bryan." Speaking of the anti-Bryan conferences to be held at Saratoga, N. Y., Mr. Stone said: "I don't believe the conferences amount to anything. This talk about them is all nonsense."

The return of Mr. Croker, of New York, from England, and his change of front from opposition to Bryan to that of a strong adherent, is the most noteworthy event of the week. When it is considered that Mr. Croker practically controls New York state and will control the New York delegation at the next National Democratic Convention, his support of Bryan practically makes his nomination certain. Before Croker went to Europe, he expressed himself against Bryan's attitude concerning the Philippines, and was an out-and-out expansionist. He returns to this country converted to Bryan's sentiments, and is now urging the Democrats of his state to adopt anti-expansion resolutions in every state and county convention to be held in the future. Mr. Croker has seen the light, and it is fortunate for the success of the party and for the interests of Mr. Bryan that he has seen it this early in the campaign.

Secretary Root has had no time to consider any matter of importance since he assumed charge of the War Department, except the preparations for moving the army now under orders for the Philippines. His purpose is to have these reinforcements on the way by September 1st, and to keep every transport employed until all of the regiments have been landed. When the work of transportation is completed and the reinforcements have arrived at Manila, there will be ample time, it is said, to give thought to the selection of a commander at the front. Mr. Root has been said to show a preference for General Merritt, should Otis be removed from charge of the field movements. The strongest advocate General Otis has, is his personal friend, General Corbin, who has great confidence in the present commander of our forces in the Philippines. Though Otis was a creature of Alger, it is alleged the latter would have removed him but for the fact that General Corbin's influence was more potent at the White House than his, and that no high officer would be disturbed unless Corbin approved. From a statement prepared by Quartermaster-General Ludington to Secretary Root, provisions are made for transporting 10,550 soldiers, including 400 marines, the first transport to sail in a few days, and the last by October 22nd. A second trip of the transports is provided, beginning with the sailing of the Morgan City on November 8th and ending with the Indiana on January 19th. Seventeen transports are available with a capacity of 17,570 men. Two trips each would give Otis reinforcements of 34,740 men. General Miles favored the dispatch of additional cavalry forces to the Philippines, bringing the total up to 10,000, but it is said that Secretary Root has at present no intention to act upon the suggestions of General Miles. A general circular has now been issued by the War Department to all commanding officers with rules to govern the transmission of messages, military and otherwise. The circular makes clear provisions with regard to military censorship.

Senators and Representatives, who have drifted into Washington recently, anticipate a lively session of Congress. All the talk of an extra session seem to have died away. The administration is in hopes to end the war in the Philippines before December 1st, but the chances are very much that the war will not be ended by that time, and that President McKinley will undoubtedly have to confront criticism of the gravest nature, even from within his own party. The recent outspoken interview of Senator Burrows, who thoroughly deprecates the war, is but the first of many similar utterances which will be heard upon the floor of Congress.

The ten sub-committees in charge of the Dewey celebration are completing rapidly the arrangements marked out. The chairman of the Committees are now in session in this city, and it is safe to predict that the Dewey celebration will probably be the greatest popular demonstration ever accorded to an American Navy officer. A monster parade, in which all the organized bodies and societies of the District of Columbia, military, civic, and fraternal are to participate, is one of the features. Dewey Night will find the capital in one gigantic flood of illumination and fireworks.

Parsnip Complexion.

A majority of the ill-suffering people today can be traced to kidney trouble. It pervades all classes of society, in all climates, regardless of age, sex or condition.

The sallow, colorless looking people you often meet are afflicted with "kidney complexions." Their kidneys are turning to a parsnip color, so is their complexion. They may suffer from indigestion, bloating, sleeplessness, uric acid, gravel, dropsy, rheumatism, catarrh of the bladder, or irregular heart. You may depend upon it, the cause is weak, unhealthy kidneys.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble and both need the same remedy. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy will build up and strengthen weak and unhealthy kidneys, purify the diseased, kidney-poisoned blood, clear the complexion and soon help the sufferer to better health.

The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, such as weak kidneys, catarrh of the bladder, gravel, rheumatism and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble. At druggists, fifty cent and dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

When writing please mention this paper.

How Are Your Kidneys?
Dr. Hobbs' Serravallo Pills cure all kidney ills. Sample free. Add. Sterling Remedy Co., Chicago or N. Y.

Hamulating Blood Diseases.
Hamulating blood diseases can be cured. This is not a theory, it is a fact. Cures are being made every day, though they are not made in a day. The reason why so many suffer without hope is because they have been so often induced to try suppositious remedies. The man who says that a blood disease can be cured by a local application or operation is a fraud. There is but one way: the blood must be purified. When that is done the disease disappears. The best purifier is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. It does the work when others fail. For sale by Winston & Gray.

To Cure Constipation Forever.
Right! Constipation cures Catarrh, Hemorrhoids, Piles, etc. C. C. C. Cures, druggists refund money.

Certainty vs. Uncertainty.
If you have property or life to insure be certain to buy sound indemnity. We sell it. Paullett & Paullett.

Beauty In Blood-Deep.
Clean blood means a clean skin. No beauty without it. Cassarets, Candy Cathartics clean your blood and keep it clean, by stirring up the lazy liver and driving all impurities from the body. Begin to-day to banish pimples, boils, blotches, blackheads, and that sickly bilious complexion by taking Cassarets, beauty for two cents. All druggists, satisfaction guaranteed, 10c, 25c, 50c.
